

December 8, 2011

The Pennsylvania Association of Elder Law Attorneys (PAELA) will be holding its Third Annual Conference on February 24-26, 2012 at the Omni Bedford Springs Resort in Bedford, PA.

- Did you know that Pennsylvania has the second largest elderly population in the U.S., Pennsylvania and its residents deal with many of the geriatric health care problems facing America today? These issues will become increasingly important to address as the number of elderly is expected to double by the year 2020.
- Did you know that our PAELA members represent some of the most seasoned and involved Elder Law practitioners in Pennsylvania?
- Did you know that our PAELA members are actively involved in advocacy for the common interests of all seniors and disabled individuals in Pennsylvania on the national and state level?

Drawing over the combined talent of over 60 members, this highly acclaimed meeting will feature experts and leaders in the field of elder law.

Sponsors and exhibitors are invited and encouraged to attend the conference. The schedule for the Conference includes specific exhibit time for attendees to visit out sponsors. We hope that you will see the value in supporting PAELA and look forward to your participation. Your generous support will enhance your company's reputation and provide an opportunity to directly reach a target audience who are experts in the field of elder law
